

HARMON RE-ELECTED GOVERNOR OF OHIO BY 60,000 MAJ.

DEMOCRATS ALSO ELECT A LEGISLATURE IN OHIO, THUS ASSURING A DEMOCRATIC SUCCESSOR IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE TO DICK--CONGRESSMAN SHARP RE-ELECTED IN THIS DISTRICT BY 5,700

Republicans Probably Lose All Of State Ticket

LOSE THE LEGISLATURE

Democrats Gain Three Seats In Congress.

CASSIDY AMONG DEFEATED

Socialists, Especially In Franklin County Make a Remarkable Showing--Harding Takes His Defeat Philosophically.

Columbus, O., Nov. 9.—Judson Harmon, by winning re-election to the governorship of Ohio has accomplished a feat which has not been witnessed since the time of Captain Reuben Wood in 1851.

Governor Harmon has been elected by a plurality of 60,000 over Warren G. Harding. Harmon carried the big cities, as was expected, and also swept the rural counties, Harding falling behind the vote for ex-Governor Harris, Harmon's former opponent, in most of the smaller counties.

The Democrats have also probably elected the balance of their state ticket by majorities in the neighborhood of 10,000, but this is not sure.

The state senate will be Democratic and possibly the legislature will be Democratic on joint ballot, resulting in the election of a Democrat to succeed Senator Charles Dick.

Three Republican congressional districts were captured by the Democrats, cutting down the Republican representation in Congress from 13 to 10, with two other districts in doubt. Congressman Albert Douglas was defeated in the Eleventh District by Henry C. Claypool. Congressman Cassidy of the Twentieth was defeated by Robert Bulkley, D., and Congressman James Joyce was beaten in the Fifteenth District by George White.

The Socialist vote was heavy all over the state, notably in the cities. It came mostly from wage workers, and apparently cut more into the Republican vote than the Democratic vote.

Harmon suffered a loss of 1500 in Butler county and corresponding gains were made by Harding in Democratic counties in the northwest but the latter sustained losses in the Western Reserve.

CUYAHOGA FIGURES

Harmon Gains 7,000 Over Plurality Given Two Years Ago.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 9.—Without making public the official figures, the Cuyahoga county board of elections reports that Harmon will carry the county by 12,000 votes, approximately, as against a trifle over 5,000 two years ago.

Robert J. Bulkley (D.) has beaten Congressman Cassidy in Burton's old district, the Twenty-first. Paul Howland has been elected in the Twentieth district. The Democratic ticket complete in Cuyahoga county is probably elected, though Norris (R.)

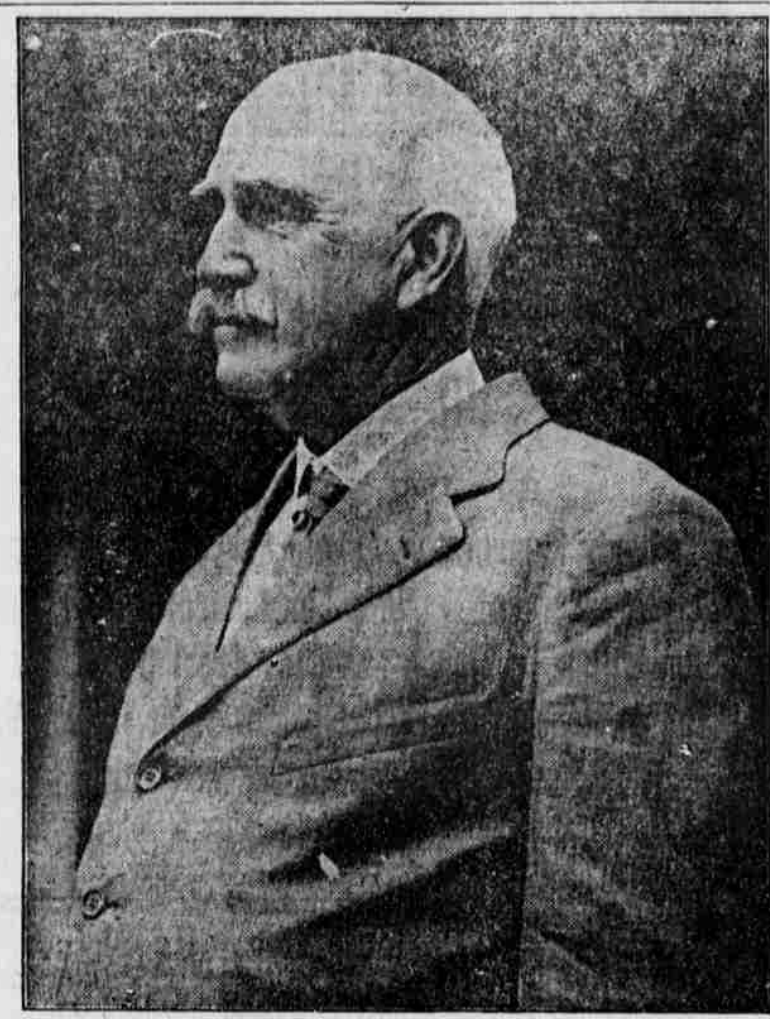

daughter, Olive, returned to their home in Pittsburg last week after a three weeks' visit with Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. Semmie McKee.

The pie social was a success Saturday night. One pie sold for $1.40 and the 30 pies were sold for $14.95 which goes to the library fund.

Mrs. Carl VanVoorhis and son Donald returned to their home in Findlay Saturday.

Prof. Skaggs delivered a most interesting and instructive lecture in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

HEAVY SOCIALIST VOTE

Bachman Gives Republican Candidate For Congress Merry Chase.

Columbus, O., Nov. 9.—By pluralities ranging from 2,000 to 3,000, Franklin county Republicans have elected their entire county ticket. The Socialists polled a tremendous vote and Bachman, candidate for congress, gave Frank Monnett a close chase for second place.

E. L. Taylor is returned to Congress for the fourth time by a greatly reduced vote. He will have nearly as large a plurality as before but the combined votes of Bachman, Soc., and Monnett, D., and former Republican will exceed his by many thousands.

EXPLAINS HIS DEFEAT

Candidate Harding Not Discouraged Over Republican Outlook.

Marion, O., Nov. 9.—Warren G. Harding issued the following statement:

"The result does not greatly surprise me nor bring a serious personal disappointment. There have been too many angles to admit of a hasty analysis. I think the majority of Republicans believe theirs is an honest party and is still devoted to the great policy of protection. Unrest and dissatisfaction have been in the air, and the majority party naturally encounters the storm. But the Republican party will come back. This is not a permanent reversal."

KEIFER IS RETURNED.

Springfield, O., Nov. 9.—J. Warren Keifer was elected to congress in the Seventh district by a slightly reduced plurality.

WOODROW WILSON WINS

College President Elected by Democrats as New Jersey's Governor.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 9.—Woodrow Wilson, former president of Princeton university, has been elected governor of New Jersey on the Democratic ticket, defeating Candidate Lewis by a plurality which will not run below 25,000. His support, fol-

HOUSE GOES OVER

Election Gains Give Democrats Control of Lower Branch.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Election returns indicate that the next house of representatives will be controlled by the Democrats.

The Democrats gained from the Republicans seats in congress in eight states. In New York seven Republican states were secured by the Democrats. In Maryland, Massachusetts, North Carolina each the Republicans lost two seats. Losses were sustained also in Illinois, Kentucky, Missouri and Ohio.

Reports received from other states indicate the Democrats would have ample margin to assure them the 22 seats necessary to give them control of the house, the Democratic gains previously having been reported in Maine.

In Oklahoma the Democrats probably gained two seats, due apparently to the operation of the so-called grandfather clause, which debarred negro Republicans from voting.

At Democratic headquarters in New Jersey it is claimed that the state will hold eight seats, making a gain of five. In West Virginia the Democrats have gained in three congressional districts.

Missouri returns show one known with three probable Democratic gains, while in Iowa and Illinois the returns indicate that the Democratic gains would total six seats. In North Carolina returns indicate Democratic gains probably would increase to three.

A big surprise came from Wisconsin, when the Republican committee conceded the election of Victor L. Berger, Social-Democrat, to congress from the Fifth district, which is now held by the Democrats.

FOSS DEFEATS DRAPER

Elected Governor of Massachusetts By 30,000 Plurality.

Boston, Nov. 9.—Congressmen Eugene N. Foss, of Cohasset, who gained the Democratic nomination through a mail vote of delegates to the state convention, following a riot in Faneuil Hall, was elected governor of Massachusetts by a plurality rising to 30,000. The remainder of the Republican ticket went into of-

see. The defeat of governor Eben S. Draper, the Republican nominee is due to the agitation over the increased cost of the necessities of life and the outcry that the Payne-Adrich tariff bill is one of the chief causes.

Kentucky's Congressmen.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 9.—Kentucky congressmen elected: First district, Ollie M. James (D.); Second, A. O. Stanley (D.); Fourth, Ben. Johnson (D.); Fifth, Swager Sherley (D.); Sixth, Arthur B. Rouse (D.); Seventh, J. Campbell Cantrill (D.); Eighth, Harvey Helm (D.); Eleventh, Caleb Powers (R.)

Democrats Get All But Two.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 9.—Democrats have elected all the congressmen except in the fifth and ninth districts.

Danville District Remains Faithful to Speaker Cannon--Beveridge Is Defeated By John W. Kern as Senator From Indiana.

New York, Nov. 9.—For the first time since the election of Grover Cleveland, in 1892, the Democratic party in the country at large has won its first victory. It has elected governors in New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Connecticut and Ohio, has upset the Republican majority in the house and has insured a greatly reduced majority in the United States senate.

Bass (R.) is elected governor in New Hampshire. Cooper (R.), and fusion candidate for governor, defeats R. L. Taylor, the Democratic candidate in Tennessee. Returns from Montana indicate a close fight in the legislature, which will elect a successor to United States Senator Carter. Pray (R.) is elected to congress.

In New York the Democratic candidate for governor, John A. Dix, is elected by a plurality of approximately 61,000, after a bitter fight.

Massachusetts elected Foss (D.) governor by a plurality estimated in excess of 20,000. Connecticut elected Judge Simeon E. Baldwin (D.) by a small plurality. The Democrats also carried New Jersey, electing Woodrow Wilson, former president of Princeton university, by a handsome plurality.

In Nebraska, where as in Indiana election of United States senators is practically by popular vote, Hitchcock, anti-Bryan Democrat, is elected over United States Senator Burkett (R.) by 20,000. Mayor Dahlman of Omaha was defeated in the state by Stubbs.

Roosevelt Loses All Around. Colonel Roosevelt lost his own election district by 60, his own county of Nassau by 300, and probably his own congressional district. Martin W. Littleton, Democratic candidate for congress, has a plurality in the colonel's county over Congressman Cocks, who was often spokesman of Colonel Roosevelt when the colonel was president.

Uncle Joe Cannon, speaker of the house is elected by the biggest majority the district has given for ten years. Sereno E. Payne, chairman of the ways and means committee is elected short of normal. Jno. Dazell, another of Speaker Cannon's lieutenants is elected in Pennsylvania.

J. Sloat Fassett, a supporter of Speaker Cannon, but one of the old guard and upholders of Theo Roosevelt at Saratoga, is defeated.

The Republicans lose senators from Indiana, Maine, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Jersey, New York. This result means the Republican majority in the United States senate will be reduced from 25 to 12. The house of representatives will be Democratic, probably by 29, a Democratic gain of 35. In the new house will be the two Socialists from Wisconsin. The New York legislature will be Democratic on a joint ballot.

In New York, the Republicans have sustained a heavy loss in congressmen as in state senators. The present congressman most overwhelmingly defeated in that state is Herbert Parsons, son of John E. Parsons, of the sugar trust, and lieutenant for Col. Roosevelt in his fight against the Old Guard in the state. Henry George, son of the theorist and single tax advocate, apparently has a small majority over Wm. S. Bennett.

In Kentucky Caleb Powers, who was convicted for the assassination of Goebel and not long out of prison was elected to congress by 3,000, carrying every county in his district except his home county of Laurel.

TENER IS ELECTED

Pennsylvania Voters Return Him a Winner by 60,000.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 9.—Pennsylvania, the bulwark for years of Republicanism, held her own and elected a Republican governor, returned a legislature overwhelmingly Republican and will also send to Congress a great majority of Republicans. The plurality of John K. Tener, Republican candidate for governor will reach 60,000. John Dalzell (R.) was re-elected to congress from the thirtieth district.

Democratic as Usual.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 9.—South Carolina as usual went solidly Democratic, electing the full Democratic congressional ticket and the entire Democratic state ticket. Cole L. Blaise of Newbury is elected governor. The only opposition was that of a Socialist candidate, who received a nominal vote.

Hooper Defeats Taylor.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 9.—Captain B. W. Hooper defeated R. L. Taylor for the governorship of Tennessee by a plurality slightly below 10,000.

Kern Will Succeed Beveridge.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 9.—The entire Republican state and legislative tickets have been defeated, thus insuring the election of John W. Kern as senator to succeed Senator Beveridge.
